

Challenge: As you listen to the audio guide, you will be given letters that relate to the symbols below. Can you discover the hidden code word?

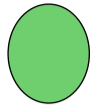

SCAN THE QR CODE TO ACCESS THE AUDIO TRACKS

- Expert In Your Pocket—a deeper dive or behind the scenes look into the objects on display
- ⬠ The People of Verulamium—theatrical 1st person stories of the people who used, owned or made the artefacts
- Extracts from the diary of Helen Carlton-Smith—a local teenager who helped the Wheelers excavate Verulamium in the 1930s.

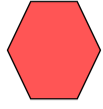

TURN OVER AND SCAN THE QR CODE TO ACCESS THE AUDIO

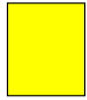

KEY:

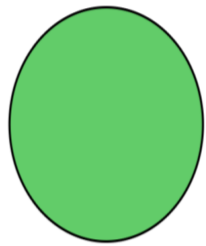

Expert In Your Pocket—a deeper dive or behind the scenes look into the objects on display

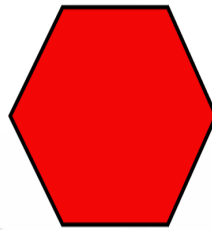

The People of Verulamium—theatrical 1st person stories of the people who used, owned or made the artefacts

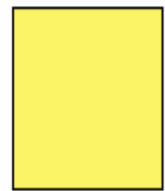

Extracts from the diary of Helen Carlton-Smith— a local teenager who helped the Wheelers excavate Verulamium in the 1930s.

EXPERT
IN YOUR POCKET

PEOPLE
OF VERULAMIUM

DIARY
OF HELEN CARLTON-SMITH

1. Boudicca's Last Stand
2. Fascinus icon
3. Venus Statue
4. Amphorae
5. Bone Tools
6. History of Pets
7. Death Trends
8. Moving a Mosaic
9. Lion and Stag Mosaic

1. Celtic Impression of the Forum
2. Oyster Seller
3. Sheep Farming
4. Living Close to Death
5. Unequal Pay
6. Drunk Graffiti
7. An Acting Career
8. Fashionable Women
9. Cooking for Romans

1. Temple
2. Baby Skeletons
3. Samian Pottery
4. Finding a Mosaic
5. Shell Mosaic
6. Wall Plaster
7. Coins
8. Bones

Once you have finished using the audio guide, please scan this QR code and share your thoughts .

Your feedback helps shape the future of Verulamium Museum.

