Weddings at St Albans Museum + Gallery

Built in 1831 and lovingly restored to its former glory, this magnificent Georgian landmark makes the perfect venue for your wedding.

From the timeless elegance of the Georgian Assembly Room, with its brilliant chandeliers and lustrous gold leaf, to the unique, octagonal-shaped Victorian Courtroom, the historic spaces and beautiful staircase will add to the sense of occasion and provide a stunning location for your wedding.

Whether you are planning a small formal ceremony or a grand reception St Albans Museum + Gallery is the perfect setting for your special day.

Our expert caterers are here to listen and advise, to ensure that you and your guests enjoy to the full whatever menu you choose, with wines to match at your request.

Our central location in this charming, historic city with excellent hotels, parking and travel links, will make access easy for your guests, and of course for yourselves.

Above all, you will be most welcome by all of us.
